

Information on Membership

The United Kingdom Evaluation Society (UKES) is the professional membership organisation for evaluators and associated roles across the UK and welcomes international members. The Society exists to promote and improve the theory, practice, understanding and utilisation of evaluation and its contribution to public knowledge.

Founded in 1994, we have a diverse membership including commissioners, practitioners and users of evaluation including national and local government, the research community, consultancies and the voluntary sector. The Society aims to create a community of practice around evaluation through bringing together our membership to share information, build knowledge and develop expertise.

Whether you're looking to develop your career through training and CPD, expand your network in a community of like-minded professional or simply keep up to date with what's going on in the world of evaluation, UKES offers a range of benefits to suit your needs.

All members receive the following benefits:

- Regular opportunities to network with fellow professionals at UKES hosted events and online, including through our affiliated regional and national networks
- Regular training events (free or reduced rates for members), with sessions tailored to meet members' self-reported needs
- In-depth support with professional development through our capabilities framework, self-assessment and voluntary evaluator peer review scheme (exclusively for members)
- Discounts of up to 20% for our popular annual conference (which means it is usually more cost-effective to become a member if you are planning to attend)
- Opportunity to create a personal professional profile on our searchable register of evaluators
- Regular news updates and informative articles via UKES eBulletins, plus hard copy or electronic versions of the UKES magazine 'The Evaluator' published two-to-three times per year
- Free advertising of recruitment and tender opportunities via UKES' website and social media
- Discounted subscription to the Evaluation journal (37.5% discount)
- Help share the future of UKES through supporting our community of practice and joining sub-groups to help improve how UKES meets the needs of our membership

Our institutional members receive the following additional benefits:

- Attendance of an unlimited number of staff at the annual UKES conference at a 20% discount, with the first place charged at the full rate
- Opportunity to advertise job vacancies without charge on UKES website and eBulletins
- Opportunity to publicise your organisation in The Evaluator, in publicity materials for the annual conference and appropriate training events and seminars
